YACHT DESCRIPTION - SEVEN

The brand new Deluxe Superior ship MS SEVEN launched in 2019. With sleek lines, excellent manoeuvrability and the latest in safety features she is well suited to cruise Croatia’s picturesque coast and berth in the historic smaller ports.

For your comfort the boat features 19 spacious cabins, mostly on Main and Lower decks. All cabins are fully air-conditioned and have twin or double beds, private ensuites and contemporary facilities.

Public spaces on the ship are plentiful, with enough room to find your own space. The air-conditioned salon-restaurant on Upper Deck includes a fully equipped bar and leads to an outdoor covered lounge area with comfortable sofas. The large Sun deck includes sun-beds and a small plunge pool to cool down in the heat of the day. At the rear of the ship a swimming platform allows easy access to the sea during many swim stops.

Upper Deck is the main restaurant and outdoor salon area. The Sun Deck is the very top deck with the sunloungers.

YACHT DESCRIPTION - SEVEN

CABINS: The modern, well-appointed cabins on the boat all have an audio system for captain and cruise director announcements, along with the latest safety features like lifejackets, a fire alarm and emergency lights. Other features include storage space for luggage, a wardrobe, desk and chair, and either a window (main deck cabins) or porthole (lower deck cabins). Private facilities include showers, toilets, wash basins and hair dryers. The main deck cabins have windows and magnificent views, while lower and upper deck cabins include portholes. There is also a sundeck cabin.

FACILITIES: The multiple public spaces on the boat were designed with the comfort of every passenger in mind. One of the most popular spots to be on the ship is the extra-spacious sundeck that offers both shaded areas and open-air areas with daybeds for sunbathing. There's also a rooftop Jacuzzi, ideal for soaking after a day out exploring. There's an elegant salon/restaurant with a bar area that includes a big-screen satellite TV which extends to the outdoor lounge area. At the rear of the ship is a swimming platform with ladders for convenient access to the sea, and two outdoor showers for rinsing after a dip.
